answer. This important fact was developed today by the announcement from another quarter that the allies might be induced to modify their demand that they be paid before the other claimant nations, to the extent of con-tenting themselves with preferential treatment for six months or perhaps a year. There is no indication as yet that they will consent to cutting this period to a month, but owing to the activity which France and the other claimant nations are showing regarding the protection of their interests in Venezuela it will not surprise the officials here if ravages of the fisherman. This is de-cidedly a new departure for this state in relation to its fish and game, and many objectors are expected to bob up and knock the bill on the head, but there are in the senate such true lovator Love, Senator Lawrence and others who will no doubt support the measure. This provision prohibits anyone at any time from selling any kind of game fish or game birds or animals to anyone within the state. If this bill s passed, trout and venison or duck can be expected to ascend to their laces alongside of beef steak and other exclusive dishes of the rich.

The bill also provides that no one shall be allowed to fish in Utah, for any kind of fish whatever when the fishing law is "out." This is to correct the evil that exists under the present law, which allows fishermen to go out ostensibly to catch certain kinds of fish that are not protected by the law, But it has been discovered that they aim o catch the choicest fish, such as trout There is another provision calculated to prevent saw dust from floating in the streams. It is asserted that in streams on which sawmills are located, the fish are not only killed by the saw dust, but the water pipes and litches are blocked up by it, and troude and damage follow. Senator Barber states that he was assisted in the preparation of the bill by Fish and Game Commissioner Sharp,
